

[124], [44], [274], [39] and Bible referred to as B)

“zero”, assuming 928 B.C. as the year “zero” ([39] and Bible = [B])

- |  |   |
|--|---|
| 1) Henry I 919–936 (17)  | 1) Rehoboam 0–17 (17)   |
| 2) Lothair 947–950 (3)   | 2) Abijah 17–20 (3)   |
| 3) Otto I the Great 936–973 (37)   | 3) Asa 20–55 (35) or 20–61 (41)   |
| 4) Otto II 960–983 (23)  | 4) Jehoshaphat 55–79 (24), or 61–86 (25)  |
| 5) Otto III the Red 983–996 (Roman coronation) (13)  | 5) Joram Judaeen (8) [B] or (6) [39], Ahaziah (Ochozias) Judaeen, altogether (9) and (7), i.e., 86–94 [B]   |
| 6) ( continued ) Otto III 996 (Roman coronation)–1002 (6)   | 6) Athaliah (Athalia) (95–101) (6) (see dates in Second Book of Chronicles, First and Second Book of Kings)   |
| 7) Henry II 1002–1004, Conrad II 1024–1039 (altogether 37)   | 7) Joash Judaeen 92–130 (38) [39] or (40) [B]   |
| 8) Henry III 1028–1056 (28)  | 8) Amaziah 130–159 (29)   |
| 9) Henry IV 1053–1106 (53). Struggle with pope Hildebrand. Famous excommunication (Canossa). Came to power at age 6. Departed to his lonely castle at end of life. Betrayal and coronation of his son Conrad. Son rules instead of father ([44], V. 5) | 9) Uzziah 159 [39] – 211 (52) [B] or (43) [39]; 211 = 159 + 52 [B]. Struggle with chief priest Azaria. Exclusion of Uzziah from house of Lord. Came to power at age 16. Was leper at end of his life and lived in “his own house”, his son actually ruling (Second Book of Chronicles 26:21–23) |
| 10) Lothair II 1125–1138 (13)  | 10) Jotham 211–227 (16) [B] or (7) [39]   |
| 11) Conrad III 1138–1152 (14)  | 11) Ahaz 227–243 (16) [B] or (20) [39]  |
| 12) Henry VI 1169–1197 (28). Attack of Frederick I on Rome in 1167. “Pestilence” in German armies and their retreat. Overlapping of Germany and Assyria (see on right)   | 12) Hezekiah 256–285 (29). Attack of Jerusalem under King Hezekiah by Assyrian king Sennaherim. “Pestilence” in Sennaherim’s army and his retreat (2 Kings 19:35–36; cf. Theodoric in 6th c.)   |
| 13) Frederick II 1196–1250 (54). Well-known Roman emperor  | 13) Manasseh 285–340 (55) [B] or (45) [39]. Well-known king   |
| 14) Conrad IV 1250–1254 (4)  | 14) Amon 340–342 (2)  |
| 15) Charles of Anjou 1254–1285 (31)  | 15) Josiah 342–373 (31)   |
| 16) Confusion and events in Italy (?) 1285–1307 (22). End of 10–13th c. empire   | 16) Jehoahaz (less than 1), Jehoiakim (11), Jehoiachin (less than 1) and Zedekiah (11) 373–397 (22) or (24). End of kingdom   |